HUGHES CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS

Renominated for Governor on the First Ballot.

SELECTION MADE UNANIMOUS

On the Motion of One of His Most Bitter Opponents—Even Saratoga, the Famous Home of Racing, Voted for the Governor—Balance of the Ticket Made Up in the "Good Old Fashioned Way."

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The Republican state ticket:
For governor—Charles E. Hughes of New York (renominated).
For lieutenant governor—Horace White of Onondaga.
For secretary of state—Samuel S. Koenig of New York.
For attorney general—Edward R. Malley of Erie.
For comptroller—Charles H. Gaus of Albany.
For state engineer and surveyor—Frank M. Williams of Madison.
For state treasurer—Thomas B. Dunn of Monroe.
For associate justice of the court of appeals—Albert Haight of Erie (renominated).
Charles Evans Hughes of New York was nominated by the Republican state convention by an overwhelming majority and on the first ballot to succeed himself as governor of the state of New York. He received 827 out of a possible 1,009, as against 151 for James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, speaker of the state assembly, and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart of Montgomery. The nomination was made unanimous upon motion of State Committeeman William Barnes, Jr., of Albany,

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES. He has been perhaps the bitterest and most outspoken opponent of the governor's renomination.

Opposition All at Sea.

The governor's renomination followed the utter failure of a desperate struggle on the part of a number of county leaders to discover a candidate upon whom they could unite to defeat him. The balance of the ticket as made up in the "good old fashioned way," as an organization late.

It was the 183 votes of all but one elector in New York county that carried the governor's total beyond the 5, a majority of the convention, required to nominate.

The nine votes of Nassau county did bring the Hughes total to 395, and a breathless hush, in which was carnate all the intensity of bitterness and suspense which up to that moment had characterized the struggle to prevent the renomination of Hughes, the secretary of the convention called "New York."

Herbert Parsons, president of the New York county Republican general committee, rose in his place, his slender figure alert and tense with the excitement of the crucial moment, and said:

"New York county, Second assembly district, gives 4 for Wadsworth, a balance of the county, 183, for Charles Evans Hughes."

This brought the Hughes total to 8. Every person in the great hall knew that the great battle was over, and the place was instantly a bedlam of cheering.

Signalized Stampede to Hughes.

It was really the earlier action of the county that signalized what might be called the "stampede to Hughes," and when its 138 votes were cast in a block for the governor any remaining doubt of his nomination was swept away.

The convention went fairly wild with the first real surprise of the roll call, when Saratoga answered "11 for Charles E. Hughes," for Saratoga is the famous home of racing.

It was a full minute before order was restored.

The balloting concluded and the totals checked, Secretary Lafayette B. Gleason came forward to announce the result.

"John K. Stewart receives 31. James W. Wadsworth receives 151. Charles E. Hughes receives 827," read the secretary, and then it was pandemonium.

William Barnes, Jr., was standing in his place, flushed and grim.

"The gentleman from Albany, Mr. Barnes," said Chairman Root, when order was restored.

"I move, Mr. Chairman," said Mr. Barnes, in his somewhat high-pitched voice, "that the nomination of Governor Hughes be made unanimous."

It was a full minute before anything else could be heard or done, and then Frank K. Cook of Livingston, who had nominated Wadsworth, and Judge J. L. Moore of Montgomery, who had nominated Stewart, seconded the motion of Mr. Barnes.

The motion was carried with a deafening shout and Secretary Root, himself not entirely unmoved—for his voice quavered a bit as he spoke—announced:

"The unanimous choice of this convention as its nominee for governor is Charles E. Hughes of New York."

It was again some moments before the chairman could compel quiet sufficient to permit the further business of the convention.

So far as the great majority of the people in the hall were concerned, the rest of the business was routine, the work of the day was done. The remainder of the ticket as agreed upon by the leaders in control of the convention was generally known. The other nominations were quickly made and then Secretary Root declared the convention adjourned without day.

Hughes Appreciates the Honor.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—"I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon me. I wish to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the Republican party." Thus did Governor Hughes make his first public statement after his notification of renomination for governor of New York state. Beyond that the governor would say nothing.

TAFT GETS OUT OF THE CONTROVERSY

Refuses to Continue Newspaper Discussion With Bryan.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Candidate William H. Taft declined to go farther with Mr. Bryan in a newspaper controversy over the issues of the campaign.

"There is nothing in Mr. Bryan's latest statement which seems to require an answer. Should it appear so later, I will take up the subject in my public speeches."

This was Mr. Taft's ultimatum, as he expressed a willingness that Mr. Bryan should have the last word of comment on President Roosevelt's Taft letter.

The gratification of Mr. Taft on the renomination of Governor Hughes was expressed in a telegram he sent the governor, congratulating him on his "well deserved nomination." He added "It not only makes the state of New York safe in November, but greatly strengthens the national ticket in every state in the Union."

He expressed the hope that the governor would be able to give some of his time to the campaign in the West.

The Fifty-first anniversary of Mr. Taft's birth proved to be the busiest day he has had since his arrival here a week ago. He delivered an address to an audience of ministers composing the Ohio conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, the first speech of his campaign to negroes. The address was not political, but gave a clear outline of the sympathetic understanding and feeling entertained for the struggles of the race possessed by the candidate.

Earlier in the day Mr. Taft met a small delegation from Greenfield, Ind., who passed through the city on an excursion.

CITY GIRDLED BY FIRE AND SMOKE

Grand Marais, Minn., Threatened With Destruction.

SEVEN PERSONS ARE MISSING

White Man and Six Indians Are Supposed to Have Lost Their Lives Not Far From Town—Small Settlement of Lutsen Is in Great Danger, But It Is Not Thought Any Loss of Life Will Occur.

Duluth, Sept. 16.—Grand Marais is girdled by roaring mountains of fire and smoke and it is believed that a man named Monker and six Indians, cut off from town by fire in their effort to save some homesteads at Nester, perished in the flames. This is the news brought in by Adjutant General Wood and officers of the Minnesota naval militia who arrived on the Gopher from the north shore. The Gopher is in for coal and provisions and will return to Grand Marais. They say the danger is not yet over by any means. Lutsen, a small settlement near Grand Marais, is in the greatest danger, say the naval militiamen. It is surrounded by fire and everything there seems doomed to destruction, although it is not thought that any loss of life will occur. For the fate of Monker and the six Indians who went to Nester, a homesteaders' settlement not far from Grand Marais, there are very grave fears indeed.

"The men started out from the town in an attempt to save some of the property located on the Nester road, and the fire swept in behind them and the village, and it is thought that they have perished," said General Wood.

"Unless they were able to escape in the other direction they are lost. Their chances of escaping the other way are thought very slim, because a big fire was coming toward them from farther inland."

At Colville, six miles from Grand Marais, everything went, said General Wood. Among those burned out there were Mrs. H. Shepard, Ever Johnson and Eli Mizenia.

"The situation looked very bad at Chicago Bay," said Commander Eaton, "and people wanted us to declare martial law there, but we did not deem it necessary. However, we left ten men from the ship there. Forty men from the boat were left to fight the fire at Lutsen and twenty were left at Grand Marais. As soon as we secure coal and provisions here we will start back on the Gopher."

The officers of the Gopher declare the gravity of the situation on the north shore has not been exaggerated in the least and that the Gopher was of great service to the people of the north shore.

International Falls in Danger.

Fort Francis, Can., Sept. 16.—Forest fires are raging south of Rainy river in Northern Minnesota, the smoke being so intense it hides the sun. A strong south wind is blowing and it is feared International Falls will be reached by the flames. A large force of men is out fighting the flames, but their efforts are of little avail.

ORDER RIGIDLY ENFORCED

Red Light District in Des Moines Abolished.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 16.—An order abolishing segregated vice and what was known as the red light quarter, went into effect Tuesday at midnight. As the order was rigidly enforced from the moment it became effective, Des Moines now occupies the distinction, it is said, of being the only city of more than 75,000 population that has no tenderloin. Of the women who infested the red light quarter, sixty have left town and eighteen have registered with the humane society for employment in households.

BRIDEGROOM STABBED.

Jealous Rival Said to Have Committed the Crime.

New York, Sept. 16.—While on his way home from a wedding supper with his bride of a few hours, John B. Rutanico, twenty-four years old, was attacked and stabbed six times about the head and shoulders. He is dying in the Harlem hospital. The bride was Miss Angela Candurino, a pretty twenty-year-old Italian girl. She says a man who once asked her to marry him made the attack.

The Prosperous Person—There is no occasion for you to envy me, my man. I have just as many troubles as you have.

The Impecunious One—I dare say you have, but the difficulty with me is that I ain't got nothing else.—London Mail.

LEADERS ARE PLEASED.

Express Gratification at Renomination of Governor Hughes.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Republican leaders from fourteen Central and Western states, who were assembled here in conference with Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee, expressed their gratification at the renomination of Hughes for governor of New York. Without exception these Western leaders declared that the action of the New York convention will aid the Republicans in their campaigns in all of the debatable states of the West.

Requests that Governor Hughes be sent into Western states to make campaign speeches have been received in great numbers, and many of the chairmen of state central committees have been insistent in their demands.

He will be asked to visit as many states as he can in the time he has to spare from his own campaign. It is said that he may be scheduled to speak in Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and other Western states, where his popularity is strong.

Chairman Hitchcock and Senator Dixon, director of the speakers' bureau of the Western headquarters, have left Chicago for Cincinnati, where they will confer with Judge Taft concerning the itinerary arranged for his Western trip. This trip, which will extend into about ten states, will begin about Sept. 25 and conclude on Oct. 7, when Mr. Taft will make a non-partisan speech before the deep waterways convention in this city. Mr. Taft may make a number of speeches in the region contiguous to Cincinnati before entering upon his long trip. These speeches, if made, will be in addition to the address to the National League of Republican clubs at Cincinnati, on Sept. 22, and the speech in connection with George Ade's rally at his farm near Brook, Ind.

TO OPPOSE CUMMINS.

Congressman John F. Lacey the Choice of the "Stand-Patters."

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 16.—Former Congressman John F. Lacey has been chosen by "stand-patters" to oppose Governor Cummins as United States senator to be voted upon at the primary in November. Lacey was selected on the second ballot. E. E. Clarke of Cedar Rapids, member of the interstate commerce commission, was considered.

Aged Minister Ends His Life.

Holland, Mich., Sept. 16.—The body of Rev. Dr. John Vandermeulen, seventy years old, was discovered in the water off the Montello park dock. He was one of the oldest ministers of the Dutch Reform church in this country and retired from active service a year ago when mental trouble compelled him to resign a parish in Wisconsin. It is thought that the aged clergyman threw himself into the water in a fit of dementia.

Shaw Opens Campaign in Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—Declaring a tariff for revenue only to be not only unconstitutional but ineffective, either as a weapon against monopoly or a producer of the funds whereby to conduct the government, former Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw formally opened the national campaign for the Republicans in a speech before a crowd that filled the Coliseum.

MINNESOTA REPUBLICANS.

Select Candidates for Congress at the Primaries.

St. Paul, Sept. 16.—Tawney in the First, McCleary in the Second and Miller in the Eighth are the winners where there were fights for the Republican nominations for congress. Tawney had the closest shave of the three, but it looks as if he carried the district by 3,500. He claims to have carried all the counties in the district except Dodge, Houston and Freeborn. C. R. Miller's victory over Congressman Adam Bede is overwhelming. Returns from all over the district show the same results, Miller carrying probably every county.

Tawney had a close run in the First district. T. V. Knutvold of Albert Lea is leading in many precincts and carried Freeborn, his own county, by a good majority. But Tawney's majority in Winona is larger in proportion, and he appears to be well in the lead in other counties. The returns indicate Tawney's nomination by a fair majority.

McCleary has the Second district safe. He says he has carried eight of the eleven counties in the district and expects to get more votes than his two opponents together.

C. R. Davis in the Third, F. C. Stevens in the Fourth, Frank M. Nye in the Fifth, C. A. Lindbergh in the Sixth, A. J. Volstead in the Seventh and Halvor Steenerson in the Ninth were all renominated. Some of them had only nominal opposition and the others none at all.

Charles H. Huhn, Rep., and Mayor J. C. Haynes, Dem., were nominated for mayor of Minneapolis.

The malicious man is always in want.—Horace.

Have you noticed them?

The city papers have been full of illustrations of fall suits and they are emphasizing the fact that they are the garments to buy this fall. You will also note this: If you will see our suits you'll find them to be the very same styles that they are showing and a comparison of prices will reveal a uniformity with ours—only we believe you'll find ours a little lower in price.

We call your attention to this fact as many are somewhat skeptical of the immense popularity of the tailored suit for fall. Let us show you our line.

"MICHAEL'S"

RETURNS NEARLY COMPLETE

Republicans Carried Maine by Nearly Eight Thousand.

Portland, Me., Sept. 16.—Practically complete returns for governor give Bert M. Fernald, Republican, a plurality of 7,799 over Obadiah Gardner, his Democratic opponent. With the First and Second congressional districts complete, and only five towns and four plantations missing in the other two districts, the returns gave Fernald 73,482 and Gardner 65,683 votes.

Welsh Knocks Out Carsey.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 16.—Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight, knocked out Frank Carsey of Chicago in the fourth round before the Pacific Athletic club here. Carsey was fighting strong when Welsh sent a crushing right to the jaw that dropped Carsey like a log. Carsey was out for two minutes and was unable to move for thirty seconds.

Chafin Closes California Campaign.

Riverside, Cal., Sept. 16.—The personal campaign in this state of Eugene W. Chafin, the Prohibition candidate for the presidency, has closed. In the past eight days he has spoken in more than twenty cities and towns. The last day he visited five towns.

Now that the primary election is over and the candidates of political parties are squarely in the field the campaign will open all along the line. The independent candidates, those who have to go on the ticket by petition, will now get busy with their notaries public and the county will be canvassed for signers. There are probably many who do not understand that they are barred from signing a petition of this description if they voted at the primaries, but such is the case. A voter has no more right to sign a petition after having helped put a man in nomination for the position than he has to vote twice at a caucus. As the list of voters at the primary election is preserved and the petition of the independent candidates can be compared with it by any interested individual and the petition thrown out if found to be fraudulent or irregular it is of the utmost importance that the voters understand the law on this point.

The election of Tuesday brings to light the fact that there are but seven democrats in the entire city, with a population of 10,000 and a vote of 830 cast at the primary election. This will be consoling news to the candidate for governor on the republican ticket for it is solid precincts like that that counts in the final wind up. The election returns show that two democratic tickets were called for in the First Ward, one each in the Second, Third and Fourth, and two in the Fifth. The democratic ticket on exhibition in this city did not possess the charm necessary to draw the faithful to the polls with a loud clamor for the possession of one that they might place a cross after the names of faithful party men, and consequently they called for republican ballots and voted them. At the general election of two years ago 686 democratic votes were recorded in the five wards of the city. This would lead one to draw the conclusion that the primary election law is lame in some respects. A law that will allow one party to dictate who shall be the nominees of the opposition party, or to participate in such dictation, certainly needs some amendments tacked onto it. Take for instance the vote cast for Mr. Brown for representative, and this with no disrespect to the candidate; the primary election made it possible for him to receive a large number of democratic votes and the word having been passed around from democratic headquarters in Little Falls that he was the man for the democrats to support, they having no candidate on the ticket, he was voted for by them and in many instances he was the only legislative candidate with a cross after his name on the ticket. Any candidate for office will accept as many votes as he can get and the fault is not with the candidate but with the law that will allow or make such a proceeding possible. When the general election comes round there will be from 400 to 600 democratic votes cast in the city, while at the primary election but seven of them were found voting with their party.

Made Over Prescriptions.

"There is one loss sustained by drug-gists that very few people know about," said the experienced clerk. "That is in the prescriptions that have to be made over, the same as clerks, stenographers, writers and artists, no matter how painstaking, frequently have to do their work over. The most careful drug clerk in existence is bound to make mistakes sometimes in measuring and mixing. He may pour in too much of some kind of liquid or sift in too much of a certain powder. In most cases the overdose would not really affect the value of the medicine, but the conscientious clerk isn't going to take any chances on murdering anybody, so he throws away the whole mixture and makes up another prescription."—New York Globe.

NIGHT RIDER REGULATIONS.

Kentucky Town's Novel Code For Use In Case of Attack.

Following are the regulations for public safety recently passed by the city council at Murray, Ky., the hotbed of the Night Rider district:

First.—Fire signal: Blowing of whistles and ringing of bells, together with loud calls from those who are awake.

Second.—All those who are able to fight fire on hearing the above signals will come promptly to the fire.

Third.—If the firing of guns is heard hereafter, all persons will stay in their houses, as this will mean that a fight is on between the state guards and the Night Riders.

Fourth.—In case of such an invasion the citizen can shoot from his home if he is positive his mark is a Night Rider and not a citizen or member of the state guards.

Fifth.—These regulations are made necessary for the reason that there is grave danger of some one being killed when promiscuous shooting is allowed.

Sixth.—This being so, from this on those who shoot to give signal will be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and will be dealt with accordingly.

Seventh.—Any citizen can ring any bell or blow any whistle to arouse the people, but not fire any gun to give an alarm.

Eighth.—In view of recent fires it has become necessary to enforce the ordinance now in existence requiring all persons found on the streets after 11 o'clock to give an account of themselves to those on guard.

Ninth.—Keep in mind that these regulations are for the good of the public, so that we may understand each other and make less the danger to life and property.

Teacher—So you can't do a simple sum in arithmetic? Now let me explain to you. Suppose eight of you have together forty-eight apples, thirty-two peaches and sixteen melons. What would each one of you get?
"Cholera morbus," replied Johnny.—Pathfinder.

Threshers in Fatal Row.

Maddock, N. D., Sept. 16.—Eugene Hayner is in jail at Minnewaukan and will be tried at the next term of district court on a charge of murdering Matt Neelan. Both men were members of a threshing crew and became involved in a drinking bout. There was an attempted hold-up on the part of Neelan and some other men, and Hayner asserts that he shot Neelan in self-defense.

Children Bitten by Mad Dogs.

Boone, Ia., Sept. 16.—Frazer has a genuine mad dog scare. Fifty dogs have been killed by order of the state veterinary department and according to reports many children have been bitten there. Whole families have left for Chicago for treatment.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Brainerd Citizen Shows How to Cure Them

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think that it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Brainerd people testify to permanent cures.

Mrs. R. S. Brain, of 601 S. Tenth St., says: "I could not do otherwise than endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and time after time I have recommended them to persons suffering from kidney trouble. When I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's drug store I was suffering from severe symptoms of kidney complaint. There was a constant dull aching in my back and the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural in appearance. From both these causes my rest was broken at night and in the morning I was usually languid and tired. Doan's Kidney Pills made a great change in my condition and after continuing their use I was so vastly improved that I felt warranted in recommending them through the local papers. I also found that Doan's Ointment is unequalled for itching and bleeding hemorrhoids."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

POURS HOT SHOT INTO JUDGE TAFT

William J. Bryan Scores Republican Candidate.

MAKES STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN

Democratic Leader Delivers Several Speeches in New Jersey After Talking to a Large Crowd in Philadelphia—Makes an Attack on Senator Du Pont in an Address at Camden, N. J.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 16.—Pouring hot shot into Mr. Taft and the Republican party at every point where he stopped, William J. Bryan in this city concluded a strenuous day of campaigning in New Jersey, following a few hours in Philadelphia, where in front of a newspaper office and before an enthusiastic throng he arraigned the Republican organization of that city and expressed his sorrow for people who he said were compelled to live under its rule. Switching into national politics he asserted that the Republican standard-bearer promised that there would be no panic and that Mr. Roosevelt, as Mr. Taft's godfather, promised the same thing. He wanted to know how Mr. Taft could prevent panics when Mr. Roosevelt already had one on his hands.

Only an hour before his arrival in that stronghold of Republicanism Mr. Bryan fired a broadside at Mr. Taft in a statement in which he cited his record on the several matters to which Mr. Taft had challenged him to declare himself.

Mr. Bryan's reception in New Jersey was a demonstrative one.

Addressed a Large Crowd.

At Washington Park on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river below Philadelphia he addressed more than 20,000 persons, his audience according him a great ovation. His speech of over an hour was continually interrupted by cheers and hand-clapping. A statement by him that his nomination for a third time after two defeats, and with no president to help him with his patronage, was due to the growth of the ideas for which he stood, provoked the wildest enthusiasm. His every utterance, almost, was directed at Mr. Taft, whom he charged with running on the record of President Roosevelt.

En route here Mr. Bryan spoke at Camden and Burlington to great crowds and shook hands with many hundreds of persons. Standing on the rear platform of his car in Camden, the Democratic candidate assured his hearers that the voters were studying the issues of the campaign. He declared that in every state the changes were in the direction of the Democratic party and that there was no place in the United States where the changes were from that party. Incidentally he again attacked T. Coleman Du Pont of the Republican executive committee, reiterating his former charge that Mr. Du Pont as a trust magnate was unfit to occupy the position of attempting to institute reforms. Along the line of travel from Camden here stops were made at a dozen places, at all of which large crowds turned out and gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

Mr. Bryan's speech in this city covered much of the same ground gone over during the day. His reception in this city was none the less cordial than at other points in the state.

The Chimney.

Where wood is much used as a fuel, according to Suburban Life, considerable soot collects in the chimneys, and it is a source of many fires. The chimney should be burned out once a year at least and the work done on a damp day, or it may be swept out. A chimney is burned out by placing a bundle of straw or similar material in the bottom of the flue and firing it. To sweep out a chimney a small metal ball about four inches in diameter is hung on a thin rope and pulled up and down in the chimney until it is clean. When not too high, the chimney can be cleaned by a brush on a jointed pole.

Birds That Play.

Some birds, like all children, like to play, and Australia and New Guinea produce the "bower bird," which builds regular playhouses. These houses are not a part of their nests, but are constructed usually in the shape of covered archways of little boughs two or three feet long, eighteen inches high and about as wide. They use these houses simply for their games, as if they were clubhouses. Generally these playhouses are decorated with bright colored shells and feathers, just as children decorate their playhouses.

Lucky Future Generations.

There is a saying of Carlyle that the greatest hope of our world lies in the certainty of heroes being born into it. That is indeed a glorious certainty, but the reference might be enlarged. Birth itself, we venture to say, not of heroes only, but of the generations in their succession, is the infinitely hopeful thing. It is the guarantee that the world will never grow old; that it will never stand still; that no halt is to be called in its eternal progress.—Christian World.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Rendered by Federal Circuit Court in Dispensary Law Case.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 16.—Covering every phase of the South Carolina dispensary case in an exhaustive opinion which deals with the broad question of states' rights, the United States circuit court of appeals handed down an opinion fully sustaining Circuit Judge Pritchard in the appointment of receivers to wind up the affairs of the liquor monopoly long maintained by the Palmetto commonwealth.

There was no dissenting opinion, Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller and Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., sustaining the law as propounded by Judge Boyd. As counsel for the state Mr. M. W. Stevenson of Bennettsville, S. C., asked for a stay of judgment in order to prepare an appeal. He wanted sixty days, though the court agreed that the documents could be prepared and filled within forty days, that much time being allowed.

The decision is a matter of paramount importance in South Carolina, where the dispensary law has long been the object of attack. Its failure to serve as a temperance measure, along with charges of graft, caused a revulsion of feeling, which resulted in the passage of a law to abolish it as a state institution, at the same time permitting towns and counties to decide by popular vote whether or not they desire to retain it under local or county management.

Delaware Democrats Nominate.

Dover, Del., Sept. 16.—Dr. Rowland G. Paynter of Sussex was nominated for governor by the Democratic state convention here. A full state ticket and presidential electors were also named, while L. Irving Handy of Wilmington received the nomination for congress.

THROWS A MATCH INTO POWDER KEG

Negro Causes Death of Himself and Five Others.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 16.—Six persons were killed and thirty injured, four of whom are not expected to live, as the result of an explosion of a car of black powder at Windsor, near here. The explosion was caused by John Wesley, a negro, who threw a lighted match into a pile of powder which had spilled from a broken keg of the explosive. For his prank Wesley paid the penalty with his life, his body being horribly mutilated. A revised list of the dead follows:

John Wesley, negro, who caused explosion; James McCabe, brakeman, Sedalia, Mo.; Henry Gravestone, residence unknown; Ed Davis, negro; two unidentified white men.

The injured who are not expected to live are:

A. F. Hershberger, conductor; J. G. Hall, drayman; R. A. Malone, coal miner; Charles Walker, negro, all of Windsor.

WARRING FACTIONS TO PULL TOGETHER

Harmony Restored Among New York State Democrats.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The warring factions of the New York state Democracy agreed to pull together and all chance of friction in the state convention has been swept away. The up-state leaders in their scattering contested districts also agreed to compromise matters pending the November election and the threatening clouds of discord gave way to a programme of harmony which will pave the way for what is planned to be a notable welcome to the presidential candidate, who will address the convention.

When the committee on contested seats met in adjourned session there was little to do but to ratify the decisions agreed upon earlier in the day.

As the result of an extended conference, participated in by Charles F. Murphy and Daniel F. Colahan of Tammany Hall, State Chairman William J. Conners and National Chairman Norman E. Mack, there seemed ample authority for the statement that the slate as prepared for ratification by the Democratic state convention was as follows:

Governor, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler of Dutchess; lieutenant governor, Francis Burton Harrison of New York; secretary of state, John S. Whalen of Monroe; attorney general, Frank Kellogg of Glen Falls, or George M. Palmer of Schoharie; comptroller, Martin H. Glynn of Albany; state engineer and surveyor, George Ricker of Erie; treasurer, Julius Hauser of Suffolk.

HUMBLED THE PRINCESS.

Fall of a Dusky Beauty From the South Sea Islands.

One night John Sharp Williams, while a student at Heidelberg, Germany, was in attendance upon a swell function at which the guest of honor was a dark skinned princess alleged to hail from one of the south sea islands. This princess was magnificently bedecked and bejeweled, and her warm olive complexion, set off by a mass of black, kinky hair, full red lips, snow white teeth and black, sparkling eyes, made her the center of the function. The masculine-like Germans swarmed about her like bees around a honeysuckle vine, and even Dutch femininity could not discount the charm of her manner or the beauty of her person.

John Sharp was introduced, of course, and immediately upon obtaining a near view of the princess (?) his southern instincts rose to the surface and his southern blood began to boil. Watching his opportunity, he managed to get to the beauty's elbow. Then, reducing his voice to a low, but perfectly audible key, he sent into her startled ears this alarming query:

"Look here, nigger, where did you come from?"

Panic stricken and with all her self possession scattered, the alleged princess turned upon her interrogator as she heard the familiar intonation of the southerner and looked into his unrelenting face. Then she stammered:

"I'm South Carolina, boss, but for de Lawd's sake don't tell it."

Whether John Sharp respected the pitiful plea of a southern negress in a faraway land and permitted her to continue her bold imposition upon the credulous Germans the story does not tell. But the fact remains that the "princess" realized that she was in the presence of one who, from intimate knowledge of her race, had divined her African origin, and she could only throw herself on his mercy.—Biloxi Herald.

Scared by Frogs.

It is said to be owed to the frogs of western Australia that that part of the empire is English and not French. About 1800 a party of prospective French colonists landed on the west coast of Australia, but on the first morning they were alarmed by the loud croaking of the frogs, which they took for demons, and retired with all speed to their ships. Western Australia might have preferred the frog to the swan as her emblem, just as Rome might have preferred, instead of the eagle, the goose that saved the capital.

In His Line.

"I'm surprised that you should be so interested in watching those silly dudes."

"Force of habit, I guess. I'm president of a real estate improvement company."

"Well?"

"Well, they're a vacant lot."—Philadelphia Press.

Hiram (coming to the point)—Sally, I've been a'payin' my respects to you for five years come next August, ain't it? Sally (blushingly)—Yes, indeed, Hiram. Utah Republicans Nominate.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 16.—The Republican state convention nominated a complete state ticket, including congressman and three presidential electors, and adopted a platform which warmly endorses the administration of President Roosevelt and the nominee of the national convention. The ticket is headed by William E. Spry of Salt Lake for governor.

Chinese Bandits Killed.

Paris, Sept. 16.—A dispatch has been received from the governor general of Indo-China reporting that a band of sharpshooters surprised a body of Chinese bandits on the Sangko river. Many of the bandits were killed and the rest were drowned while seeking to escape by swimming.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

HUGHES CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS

Renominated for Governor on the First Ballot.

SELECTION MADE UNANIMOUS

On the Motion of One of His Most

Bitter Opponents—Even Saratoga, the Famous Home of Racing, Voted for the Governor—Balance of the Ticket Made Up in the "Good Old Fashioned Way."

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The Republican state ticket:

For governor—Charles E. Hughes of

New York (renominated).

For lieutenant governor—Horace

White of Onondaga.

For secretary of state—Samuel S.

Koenig of New York.

For attorney general—Edward R.

O'Malley of Erie.

For comptroller—Charles H. Gaus of Albany.

For state engineer and surveyor—

Frank M. Williams of Madison.

For state treasurer—Thomas B.

Dunn of Monroe.

For associate justice of the court of appeals—Albert Haight of Erie (renominated).

Charles Evans Hughes of New York was nominated by the Republican state convention by an overwhelming majority and on the first ballot to succeed himself as governor of the state of New York. He received 827 out of a possible 1,009, as against 151

for James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, speaker of the state assembly, and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart of Montgomery.

The nomination was made unanimous upon motion of State Committee man William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, who has been perhaps the bitterest and most outspoken opponent of the governor's renomination.

Opposition All at Sea.

The governor's renomination followed the utter failure of a desperate struggle on the part of a number of county leaders to discover a candidate upon whom they could unite to defeat him. The balance of the ticket was made up in the "good old fashioned way," as an organization late.

It was the 183 votes of all but one district in New York county that carried the governor's total beyond the 5, a majority of the convention, required to nominate.

The nine votes of Nassau county had brought the Hughes total to 395.

Ald a breathless hush, in which was carried all the intensity of bitterness and suspense which up to that moment had characterized the struggle to prevent the renomination of doubt of his nomination was swept away.

The convention went fairly wild with the first real surprise of the roll call, when Saratoga answered "11 for Charles E. Hughes," for Saratoga is the famous home of racing.

It was a full minute before order was restored.

The balloting concluded and the totals checked, Secretary Lafayette B.

Gleason came forward to announce the result.

"John K. Stewart receives 31, James

W. Wadsworth receives 151, Charles E. Hughes receives 827," read the secretary, and then it was pandemonium.

William Barnes, Jr., was standing in his place, flushed and grim.

"The gentleman from Albany, Mr.

Barnes," said Chairman Root, when order was restored.

"I move, Mr. Chairman," said Mr.

Barnes, in his somewhat high-pitched voice, "that the nomination of Governor Hughes be made unanimous."

It was a full minute before anything else could be heard or done, and then Frank K. Cook of Livingston, who had nominated Wadsworth, and

Judge J. L. Moore of Montgomery, who had nominated Stewart, seconded

the motion of Mr. Barnes.

The motion was carried with a deafening shout and Secretary Root, himself not entirely unmoved—for his voice quavered a bit as he spoke—announced:

"The unanimous choice of this convention as its nominee for governor is Charles E. Hughes of New York."

It was again some moments before the chairman could compel quiet sufficient to permit the further business of the convention.

So far as the great majority of the people in the hall were concerned, the rest of the business was routine, the work of the day was done. The remainder of the ticket as agreed upon by the leaders in control of the convention was generally known. The other nominations were quickly made and then Secretary Root declared the convention adjourned without day.

Hughes Appreciates the Honor.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—"I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon me. I wish to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the Republican party." Thus did Governor Hughes make his first public statement after his notification of renomination for governor of New York state. Beyond that the governor would say nothing.

Taft Gets Out of
The Controversy

Refuses to Continue Newspaper
Discussion With Bryan.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Candidate

William H. Taft declined to go farther with Mr. Bryan in a newspaper controversy over the issues of the campaign.

"There is nothing in Mr. Bryan's latest statement which seems to require an answer. Should it appear so later, I will take up the subject in my public speeches."

This was Mr. Taft's ultimatum, as he expressed a willingness that Mr.

Bryan should have the last word of comment on President Roosevelt's

Taft letter.

The gratification of Mr. Taft on the renomination of Governor Hughes was expressed in a telegram he sent the governor, congratulating him on his

"well deserved nomination." He added

"It not only makes the state of New York safe in November, but greatly strengthens the national ticket in every state in the Union."

He expressed the hope that the governor would be able to give some of his time to the campaign in the West.

CITY GIRDLED BY FIRE AND SMOKE

Grand Marais, Minn., Threatened With Destruction.

SEVEN PERSONS ARE MISSING

White Man and Six Indians Are Supposed to Have Lost Their Lives Not Far From Town—Small Settlement

of Lutsen Is in Great Danger, But

It Is Not Thought Any Loss of Life

Will Occur.

Duluth, Sept. 16.—Grand Marais is girdled by roaring mountains of fire and smoke and it is believed that a man named Monker and six Indians, cut off from town by fire in their effort to save some homesteads at Nester, perished in the flames. This is the news brought in by Adjutant General Wood and officers of the Minnesota naval militia who arrived on the Gopher from the north shore. The Gopher is in for coal and provisions and will return to Grand Marais. They say the danger is not yet over by any means. Lutsen, a small settlement near Grand Marais, is in the greatest danger, say the naval militiamen. It is surrounded by fire and everything

there seems doomed to destruction, although it is not thought that any loss of life will occur. For the fate of Monker and the six Indians who went to Nester, a homesteaders' settlement not far from Grand Marais, there are very grave fears indeed.

"The men started out from the town in an attempt to save some of the party located on the Nester road, and the fire swept in behind them and the village, and it is thought that they have perished," said General Wood.

"Unless they were able to escape in the other direction they are lost.

Their chances of escaping the other way are thought very slim, because a big fire was coming toward them from farther inland."

At Colville, six miles from Grand

Marais, everything went, said General

Wood. Among those burned out there were Mrs. H. Shepard, Ever Johnson and Eli Mizenia.

"The situation looked very bad at Chicago Bay," said Commander Eaton,

"and people wanted us to declare martial law there, but we did not deem it necessary. However, we left ten men from the ship there. Forty men from the boat were left to fight the fire at Lutsen and twenty were left at Grand Marais. As soon as we secure coal and provisions here we will start back on the Gopher."

The officers of the Gopher declare the gravity of the situation on the north shore has not been exaggerated in the least and that the Gopher was of great service to the people of the International Falls in Danger.

Fort Francis, Can., Sept. 16.—Forest fires are raging south of Rainy river in Northern Minnesota, the smoke being so intense it hides the sun. A strong south wind is blowing and it is fearing International Falls will be reached by the flames. A large force of men is out fighting the flames, but their efforts are of little avail.

ORDER RIGIDLY ENFORCED

Red Light District in Des Moines

Abolished.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 16.—An order abolishing segregated vice and what was known as the red light quarter, went into effect Tuesday at midnight.

As the order was rigidly enforced

from the moment it became effective,

Des Moines now occupies the distinction, it is said, of being the only city of more than 75,000 population that has no tenderloin. Of the women who infested the red light quarter, sixty have left town and eighteen have registered with the humane society for employment in households.

BRIDEGROOM STABBED.

Jealous Rival Said to Have Committed

the Crime.

New York, Sept. 16.—While on his way home from a wedding supper with his bride of a few hours, John B.

Rutanito, twenty-four years old, was attacked and stabbed six times about the head and shoulders. He is dying in the Harlem hospital. The bride was Miss Angela Candurino, a pretty twenty-year-old Italian girl. She says

a man who once asked her to marry him made the attack.

The Prosperous Person—There is no occasion for you to envy me, my man.

I have just as many troubles as you have.

The Impoverished One—I dare say you have, but the difficulty with me is that I ain't got nothing else.—London

LEADERS ARE PLEASED.

Express Gratification at Renomination of Governor Hughes.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Republican leaders from fourteen Central and Western states, who were assembled here in conference with Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee, expressed their gratification at the renomination of Hughes for governor of New York. Without exception these Western leaders declared that the action of the New York convention will aid the Republicans in their campaigns in all of the

Now that the primary election is over and the candidates of political parties are squarely in the field the campaign will open all along the line. The independent candidates, those who have to go on the ticket by petition, will now get busy with their notaries public and the county will be canvassed for signers. There are probably many who do not understand that they are barred from signing a petition of this description if they voted at the primaries, but such is the case. A voter has no more right to sign a petition after having helped put a man in nomination for the position than he has to vote twice at a caucus. As the list of voters at the primary election is preserved and the petition of the independent candidates can be compared with it by any interested individual and the petition thrown out if found to be fraudulent or irregular it is of the utmost importance that the voters understand the law on this point.

The election of Tuesday brings to light the fact that there are but seven democrats in the entire city, with a population of 10,000 and a vote of 830 cast at the primary election. This will be consoling news to the candidate for governor on the republican ticket for it is solid precincts like that that counts in the final wind up. The election returns show that two democratic tickets were called for in the First Ward, one each in the Second, Third and Fourth, and two in the Fifth. The democratic ticket on exhibition in this city did not possess the charm necessary to draw the faithful to the polls with a loud clamor for the possession of one that they might place a cross after the names of faithful party men, and consequently they called for republican ballots and voted them. At the general election of two years ago 686 democratic votes were recorded in the five wards of the city. This would lead one to draw the conclusion that the primary election law is lame in some respects. A law that will allow one party to dictate who shall be the nominees of the opposition party, or to participate in such dictation, certainly needs some amendments tacked onto it. Take for instance the vote cast for Mr. Brown for representative, and this with no disrespect to the candidate; the primary election made it possible for him to receive a large number of democratic votes and the word having been passed around from democratic headquarters in Little Falls that he was the man for the democrats to support, they having no candidate on the ticket, he was voted for by them and in many instances he was the only legislative candidate with a cross after his name on the ticket. Any candidate for office will accept as many votes as he can get and the fault is not with the candidate but with the law that will allow or make such a proceeding possible. When the general election comes round there will be from 400 to 600 democratic votes cast in the city, while at the primary election but seven of them were found voting with their party.

Made Over Prescriptions.
 "There is one loss sustained by druggists that very few people know about," said the experienced clerk. "That is in the prescriptions that have to be made over, the same as clerks, stenographers, writers and artists, no matter how painstaking, frequently have to do their work over. The most careful drug clerk in existence is bound to make mistakes sometimes in measuring and mixing. He may pour in too much of some kind of liquid or sift in too much of a certain powder. In most cases the overdose would not really affect the value of the medicine, but the conscientious clerk isn't going to take any chances on murdering anybody, so he throws away the whole mixture and makes up another prescription."—New York Globe.

NIGHT RIDER REGULATIONS.

Kentucky Town's Novel Code For Use In Case of Attack.

Following are the regulations for public safety recently passed by the city council at Murray, Ky., the hotbed of the Night Rider district:

First.—Fire signal: Blowing of whistles and ringing of bells, together with loud calls from those who are awake.

Second.—All those who are able to fight fire on hearing the above signals will come promptly to the fire.

Third.—If the firing of guns is heard hereafter, all persons will stay in their houses, as this will mean that a fight is on between the state guards and the Night Riders.

Fourth.—In case of such an invasion the citizen can shoot from his home if he is positive his mark is a Night Rider and not a citizen or member of the state guards.

Fifth.—These regulations are made necessary for the reason that there is grave danger of some one being killed when promiscuous shooting is allowed.

Sixth.—This being so, from this on those who shoot to give signal will be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and will be dealt with accordingly.

Seventh.—Any citizen can ring any bell or blow any whistle to arouse the people, but not fire any gun to give an alarm.

Eighth.—In view of recent fires it has become necessary to enforce the ordinance now in existence requiring all persons found on the streets after 11 o'clock to give an account of themselves to those on guard.

Ninth.—Keep in mind that these regulations are for the good of the public, so that we may understand each other and make less the danger to life and property.

Teacher—So you can't do a simple sum in arithmetic? Now let me explain to you. Suppose eight of you have together forty-eight apples, thirty-two peaches and sixteen melons. What would each one of you get?
 "Cholera morbus," replied Johnny.—Pathfinder.

Threshers in Fatal Row.
 Maddock, N. D., Sept. 16.—Eugene Hayner is in jail at Minnewaukan and will be tried at the next term of district court on a charge of murdering Matt Neelan. Both men were members of a threshing crew and became involved in a drinking bout. IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think that it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Brainerd people testify to permanent cures.

Mrs. R. S. Brain, of 601 S. Tenth St., says: "I could not do otherwise than endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and time after time I have recommended them to persons suffering from kidney trouble. When I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's drug store I was suffering from severe symptoms of kidney complaint. There was a constant dull aching in my back and the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural in appearance. From both these causes my rest was broken at night and in the morning I was usually languid and tired. Doan's Kidney Pills made a great change in my condition and after continuing their use I was so vastly improved that I felt warranted in recommending them through the local papers. I also found that Doan's Ointment is unequalled for itching and bleeding hemorrhoids."

MALLEABLE
The "Stay Satisfactory" Range

¶ Our years of experience as range dealers convinces us that the construction of the Monarch fully justifies this claim.

Much time is wasted with a common range waiting for hot fire in the morning or a baking heat during the day. The Monarch works PROMPTLY. A piping hot fire in five minutes after opening drafts is the regular thing.

Ranges of common type WASTE fuel because outside air is drawn in through its open seams and joints. The Moñarch utilizes ALL the heat in the coal or wood. It is built AIR-TIGHT by riveting its steel plates to Malleable iron frames—no stove bolts or putty used.

The hardest and most disagreeable tasks about the kitchen are blacking the range top and cleaning the crusted black bottoms of cooking utensils. All this is done away with by the Monarch polished top that don't require stove blacking.

POURS HOT SHOT INTO JUDGE TAFT

William J. Bryan Scores Republican Candidate.

MAKES STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN

Democratic Leader Delivers Several Speeches in New Jersey After Talking to a Large Crowd in Philadelphia—Makes an Attack on Senator Du Pont in an Address at Camden, N. J.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 16.—Pouring hot shot into Mr. Taft and the Republican party at every point where he stopped, William J. Bryan in this city concluded a strenuous day of campaigning in New Jersey, following a few hours in Philadelphia, where in front of a newspaper office and before an enthusiastic throng he arraigned the Republican organization of that city and expressed his sorrow for people who he said were compelled to live under its rule. Switching into national politics he asserted that the Republican standard-bearer promised that there would be no panic and that Mr. Roosevelt, as Mr. Taft's godfather, promised the same thing. He wanted to know how Mr. Taft could prevent panics when Mr. Roosevelt already had one on his hands.

Only an hour before his arrival in that stronghold of Republicanism Mr. Bryan fired a broadside at Mr. Taft in a statement in which he cited his record on the several matters to which Mr. Taft had challenged him to declare himself.

Mr. Bryan's reception in New Jersey was a demonstrative one.

Addressed a Large Crowd.

At Washington Park on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river below Philadelphia he addressed more than 20,000 persons, his audience according him a great ovation. His speech of over an hour was continually interrupted by cheers and hand-clapping. A statement by him that his nomination for a third time after two defeats, and with no president to help him with his patronage, was due to the growth of the ideas for which he stood, provoked the wildest enthusiasm. His every utterance, almost, was directed at Mr. Taft, whom he charged with running on the record of President Roosevelt.

En route here Mr. Bryan spoke at Camden and Burlington to great crowds and shook hands with many hundreds of persons. Standing on the rear platform of his car in Camden, the Democratic candidate assured his hearers that the voters were studying the issues of the campaign. He declared that in every state the changes were in the direction of the Democratic party and that there was no place in the United States where the changes were from that party. Incidentally he again attacked T. Coleman Du Pont of the Republican executive committee, reiterating his former charge that Mr. Du Pont as a trust magnate was unfit to occupy the position of attempting to institute reforms. Along the line of travel from Camden here stops were made at a dozen places, at all of which large crowds turned out and gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

Mr. Bryan's speech in this city covered much of the same ground gone over during the day. His reception in this city was none the less cordial than at other points in the state.

The Chimney.

Where wood is much used as a fuel, according to Suburban Life, considerable soot collects in the chimneys, and it is a source of many fires. The chimney should be burned out once a year at least and the work done on a damp day, or it may be swept out. A chimney is burned out by placing a bundle of straw or similar material in the bottom of the flue and firing it. To sweep out a chimney a small metal ball about four inches in diameter is hung on a thin rope and pulled up and down in the chimney until it is clean. When not too high, the chimney can be cleaned by a brush on a jointed pole.

Birds That Play.

Some birds, like all children, like to play, and Australia and New Guinea produce the "bower bird," which builds regular playhouses. These houses are not a part of their nests, but are constructed usually in the shape of covered archways of little boughs two or three feet long, eighteen inches high and about as wide. They use these houses simply for their games, as if they were clubhouses. Generally these playhouses are decorated with bright colored shells and feathers, just as children decorate their playhouses.

Lucky Future Generations.

There is a saying of Carlyle that the greatest hope of our world lies in the certainty of heroes being born into it. That is indeed a glorious certainty, but the reference might be enlarged. Birth itself, we venture to say, not of heroes only, but of the generations in their succession, is the infinitely hopeful thing. It is the guarantee that the world will never grow old; that it will never stand still; that no halt is to be called in its eternal progress.—Christian World.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Rendered by Federal Circuit Court in Dispensary Law Case.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 16.—Covering every phase of the South Carolina dispensary case in an exhaustive opinion which deals with the broad question of states' rights, the United States circuit court of appeals handed down an opinion fully sustaining Circuit Judge Fritchard in the appointment of receivers to wind up the affairs of the liquor monopoly long maintained by the Palmetto commonwealth.

There was no dissenting opinion. Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller and Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., sustaining the law as propounded by Judge Boyd. As counsel for the state Mr. M. W. Stevenson of Bennettsville, S. C., asked for a stay of judgment in order to prepare an appeal. He wanted sixty days, though the court agreed that the documents could be prepared and filled within forty days, that much time being allowed.

The decision is a matter of paramount importance in South Carolina, where the dispensary law has long been the object of attack. Its failure to serve as a temperance measure, along with charges of graft, caused a revulsion of feeling, which resulted in the passage of a law to abolish it as a state institution, at the same time permitting towns and counties to decide by popular vote whether or not they desire to retain it under local or county management.

Delaware Democrats Nominate.

Dover, Del., Sept. 16.—Dr. Rowland G. Paynter of Sussex was nominated for governor by the Democratic state convention here. A full state ticket and presidential electors were also named, while L. Irving Handy of Wilmington received the nomination for congress.

THROWS A MATCH INTO POWDER KE3

Negro Causes Death of Himself and Five Others.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 16.—Six persons were killed and thirty injured, four of whom are not expected to live, as the result of an explosion of a car of black powder at Windsor, near here. The explosion was caused by John Wesley, a negro, who threw a lighted match into a pile of powder which had spilled from a broken keg of the explosive. For his prank Wesley paid the penalty with his life, his body being horribly mutilated. A revised list of the dead follows:

John Wesley, negro, who caused explosion; James McCabe, brakeman, Sedalia, Mo.; Henry Gravestone, residence unknown; Ed Davis, negro; two unidentified white men.

The injured who are not expected to live are:

A. F. Hershberger, conductor; J. G. Hall, drayman; R. A. Malone, coal miner; Charles Walker, negro, all of Windsor.

Harmony Restored Among New York State Democrats.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The warring factions of the New York state Democracy agreed to pull together and all chance of friction in the state convention has been swept away. The up-state leaders in their scattering contested districts also agreed to compromise matters pending the November election and the threatening clouds of discord gave way to a programme of harmony which will pave the way for what is planned to be a notable welcome to the presidential candidate, who will address the convention.

When the committee on contested seats met in adjourned session there was little to do but to ratify the decisions agreed upon earlier in the day. As the result of an extended conference, participated in by Charles F. Murphy and Daniel F. Colahan of Tammany Hall, State Chairman William J. Connors and National Chairman Norman E. Mack, there seemed ample authority for the statement that the state as prepared for ratification by the Democratic state convention was as follows:

Governor, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler of Dutchess; Lieutenant governor, Francis Burton Harrison of New York; secretary of state, John S. Whalen of Monroe; attorney general, Frank Kellogg of Glen Falls, or George M. Palmer of Schoharie; comptroller, Martin H. Glynn of Albany; state engineer and surveyor, George Ricker of Erie; treasurer, Julius Hauser of Suffolk.

HUMBLED THE PRINCESS.

Fall of a Dusky Beauty From the South Sea Islands.

One night John Sharp Williams, while a student at Heidelberg, Germany, was in attendance upon a swell function at which the guest of honor was a dark skinned princess alleged to hail from one of the south sea islands. This princess was magnificently bedecked and bejeweled, and her warm olive complexion, set off by a mass of black, kinky hair, full red lips, snow white teeth and black, sparkling eyes, made her the center of the function. The masculine-like Germans swarmed about her like bees around a honeysuckle vine, and even Dutch femininity could not discount the charm of her manner or the beauty of her person.

John Sharp was introduced, of course, and immediately upon obtaining a near view of the princess (?) his southern instincts rose to the surface and his southern blood began to boil. Watching his opportunity, he managed to get to the beauty's elbow. Then, reducing his voice to a low, but perfectly audible key, he sent into her startled ears this alarming query:

"Look here, nigger, where did you come from?"

Panic stricken and with all her self possession scattered, the alleged princess turned upon her interrogator as she heard the familiar intonation of the southerner and looked into his unrelenting face. Then she stammered:

"I'm South Carolina, boss, but for de Lawd's sake don't tell it."

Whether John Sharp respected the piteous plea of a southern negress in a faraway land and permitted her to continue her bold imposition upon the credulous Germans the story does not tell. But the fact remains that the "princess" realized that she was in the presence of one who, from intimate knowledge of her race, had divined her African origin, and she could only throw herself on his mercy.—Biloxi Herald.

Scared by Frogs.

It is said to be owed to the frogs of western Australia that that part of the empire is English and not French. About 1800 a party of prospective French colonists landed on the west coast of Australia, but on the first morning they were alarmed by the loud croaking of the frogs, which they took for demons, and retired with all speed to their ships. Western Australia might have preferred the frog to the swan as her emblem, just as Rome might have preferred, instead of the eagle, the goose that saved the capital.

In His Line.

"I'm surprised that you should be so interested in watching those silly fudes."

"Force of habit, I guess. I'm president of a real estate improvement company."

"Well?"

"Well, they're a vacant lot."—Philadelphia Press.

Paid In Full.

Hiram (coming to the point)—Sally, I've been a'payin' my respects to you for five years come next August, ain't I? Sally (blushingly)—Yes, indeed, Hiram. Hiram—Well, all I'm a-goin' to say is that I'm durn sick up the installment plan! Sally (in his arms)—Pa's agreeable, Hiram!—St. Louis Republic.

Missionary Work.

"So you once lived in Africa, Sam?"

"Yes, sah."

"Ever do any missionary work out there, Sam?"

"Oh, yes, sah! I was cook' for a cannibal chief, sah!"—Pick-Me-Up.

"You want to marry my daughter, eh? May I ask what chance you have for getting on in the world?"
"I have an automobile, a yacht and an airship."
"Well, you seem to have every means for getting on. She's yours, my boy."
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE CONDUCTOR'S 6088.

A Pullman conductor had rheumatic pains for years, but he hasn't them now, so that is another story except to remark that 6088 took it away. What 6088? Was it a car? Read what the conductor has written:

"Having suffered with rheumatism for years and after trying all kinds of remedies with little or no satisfaction through the kindness of a friend I tried one bottle of 6088 and have had no rheumatism since. This medicine is a jewel."

Utah Republicans Nominate.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 16.—The Republican state convention nominated a complete state ticket, including congressman and three presidential electors, and adopted a platform which warmly endorses the administration of President Roosevelt and the nominee of the national convention. The ticket is headed by William E. Spry of Salt Lake for governor.

Chinese Bandits Killed.

Paris, Sept. 16.—A dispatch has been received from the governor general of Indo-China reporting that a band "of sharpshooters surprised a body of Chinese bandits on the Sangke river. Many of the bandits were killed and the rest were drowned while seeking to escape by swimming.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

No Pain with Red Blood

You can get your blood right by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Rheumatism and diseases of the nerves are closely allied—both are due to thin, watery and impure blood.

Have you ever noticed that it is when you are tired, weak, worn out and exhausted that the rheumatism gives you trouble.

Well, if your blood were analyzed at such times it would be found lacking in just such elements as are contained in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Because this great restorative actually forms rich, healthful blood it positively cures rheumatism.

MR. JOHN GERHART, South Main St. Orville, Ohio, writes—"One of my family got run down in health and strength and suffered a great deal from rheumatism. He used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills with splendid results. The rheumatism is all gone, strength good and nerves steady. We gladly recommend so excellent a medicine."
